Chef Su'a Aukusitino Suifaatau (Samoa)

Chef Su'a Aukusitino Suifaatau, an accomplished Executive Chef, Culinary Educator, and Hospitality Leader, has over 30 years of experience in commercial cookery, culinary training, and large-scale food operations in Samoa and in the Pacific.

His professional journey includes positions at Sinalei Reef Resort and Spa, Roko's Restaurant, the American Samoa Culinary School Program, and the Australia Pacific Training Coalition (APTC), where he served as a Commercial Cookery Trainer from 2018 to 2024.

Having catered for international dignitaries, celebrities, sporting events, and major conferences, Chef Sua's career highlights include serving as the personal chef for Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson; leading catering operations for the 2015 Commonwealth Youth Games in Samoa, hosting internationally renowned band UB40, and winning Samoa's Best Oka competition for three consecutive years, as well as being appointed Chef to work alongside King Charles' Chef during His Royal Highness' visit to Samoa 2024. Chef Su'a is enthusiastic about inspiring the next generation of Pacific chefs while promoting Samoa's cuisine as a world-class culinary experience.
