ONE OCEAN - MANY FLAVOURS

Chef Ashim Singh (Fiji)

Chef Ashim Singh is the first Fijian to hold the position of Executive Chef at Hilton Fiji Beach Resort and Spa, Denarau, Nadi.

Previously the Executive Sous Chef, Ashim brings with him excellent culinary expertise and draws influence from his Southeast Asia adventures along with his Fijian heritage, Ashim's incorporation of the two can be seen in dishes such as Palm Salad and Palusami Lasagne.

Passionate about food, Chef Ashim boasts chef knives tattooed on his right forearm with a butcher's diagram of beef cuts on his back.

In the process of writing his own cookbook, Ashim wants to introduce local touches, such as cooking on an open wood fire, the way his mother and grandmother used to.
